

Court Square Capital Partners in its Definitive Agreement to Sell Advanced Diabetes Supply Group for US$1.1B

NOVEMBER 11, 2024

A team led by Craig Godshall and Matthew Schlosser represented Court Square Capital Partners, a New York-based leading middle-market private equity company, in its entry into a definitive agreement to sell Advanced Diabetes Supply® Group, a California-based national distributor of Durable Medical Equipment specializing in diabetes supplies, to Cardinal Health for US$1.1B. This sale will allow AD SG to continue to expand its reach and enhance the way it serves its approximately 500,000 patients nationwide with advances in in-home delivery of diabetes products including continuous glucose monitoring devices and other testing supplies.
