

Future of Finance Webinar Series: Trump 2.0: A More FinTech-Friendly Regulatory Environment? Hosted by the American FinTech Council

FEBRUARY 27, 2025

On February 27, 2025, Winston & Strawn's Co-Chair of the FinTech, Banking & Payments Group, Juan Azel moderated a discussion "Trump 2.0: A More FinTech-Friendly Regulatory Environment?" as part of the American FinTech Council's Future of Finance Webinar Series. Carl Fornaris, Co-Chair of the Financial Services Practice and FinTech, Banking & Payments Group was a panelist.

The webinar offered an in-depth review of recent developments in the fintech regulatory space and insights into potentially favorable conditions for banks and fintechs. Panelists discussed:

- Introducing the new agency heads: Who's in charge and what does this mean for the regulatory landscape?
- Regulatory & compliance updates: The latest changes impacting our industry.
- Verdict on key final and proposed rules: A look at "midnight-made rules" and what they mean for you.
- Future of agency rulemaking: What's on the horizon?
- Supervision and enforcement priorities: Understanding the focus areas and potential implications.

Watch the Webinar

1 Min Read

Speakers

Juan Azel

Carl Fornaris

Related Capabilities

Related Professionals

Juan Azel

Carl Fornaris