

Charlotte Office Named Pro Bono Firm of the Year and Terry Brown Honored for Commitment to Justice by Safe Alliance

MAY 7, 2025

Safe Alliance recently honored Winston's Charlotte office with its 2025 Pro Bono Firm of the Year award. The annual award recognizes a law firm that consistently demonstrates excellence and an unwavering commitment to providing legal service to survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.

"Winston & Strawn has been an incredible partner to Safe Alliance and our clients this year. From reviewing complaints to representing clients in court, Winston attorneys are making a direct and meaningful impact on our clients' safety," said Suzi Canali, Safe Alliance's Chief Legal Officer.

Terry Brown Jr. was also honored with a Commitment to Justice award for his dedication to providing pro bono legal services to the clients served by Safe Alliance. Terry also serves as a Director on the Safe Alliance Board.

"Terry is a smart, compassionate litigator who goes above and beyond for our clients," said Chief Legal Officer Suzi Canali.

Winston and Terry were honored at an awards ceremony hosted by Safe Alliance on April 10, 2025.
