Winston & Strawn LLP

Melody Lin

She/Her/Hers
Associate

New York
+1 212-294-1759

Melody is a litigation associate whose practice comprises a broad range of white collar, complex commercial litigation, internal and government investigations, and antitrust matters.

She has experience conducting a wide array of legal research and assisting in drafting pleadings and motions. Melody also maintains an active pro bono practice supporting prisoners' rights and housing rights.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Melody earned her J.D. from Columbia University in 2024, where she was recognized as a James Kent Scholar for high academic honors. While attending law school, Melody was Staff Editor for Columbia's Human Rights Law Review. Melody received her B.A. in Political Science and Policy Studies from Rice University.

ADMISSIONS

- New York

LANGUAGES

- Mandarin