

Winston's AI Monthly Recap - June 2025

JUNE 2025

Winston's AI Top 10 summarizes the latest AI developments in the legal industry.

Top 10 - June 13

Download the full recap.

1. REPUBLICANS REVISE BAN ON STATE AI REGULATIONS IN BID TO PRESERVE CONTROVERSIAL PROVISION

Senate Republicans have revised their tax bill to discourage states from regulating AI by tying federal broadband funding to a 10-year moratorium on such regulations, replacing an earlier outright ban. | Read More

2. L'ORÉAL TAPS NVIDIA TECH TO SUPERCHARGE ITS AI EFFORTS

L'Oréal has announced a strategic partnership with Nvidia to enhance its artificial intelligence capabilities to bolster its marketing efforts. | Read More

3. AI VIDEO PUSHES BOUNDARIES OF VICTIM IMPACT STATEMENTS

In a groundbreaking case, a Phoenix courtroom witnessed the use of an AI-generated video to deliver a victim impact statement, digitally recreating the deceased victim to speak at sentencing. | Read More

4. UK MINISTERS DELAY AI REGULATION AMID PLANS FOR MORE 'COMPREHENSIVE' BILL

UK ministers have postponed AI regulation by at least a year, opting instead to introduce a more comprehensive bill in the next parliamentary session that will address both safety and copyright concerns. | Read More

5. LVMH BETS ON AI TO NAVIGATE LUXURY GOODS SLOWDOWN

LVMH is increasing its investment in artificial intelligence to effectively overhaul its supply chain management, product development, e-commerce, and pricing.

6. PERPLEXITY AI GETS CYBERSQUATTING CUT FROM TEXAS CO. TM SUIT

Texas software company's cybersquatting claim against Perplexity AI was dismissed due to insufficient evidence of bad faith. Texas software company's cybersquatting claim against Perplexity AI was dismissed due to insufficient evidence of bad faith. | Read More

7. GENAI ADOPTION OUTPACES GOVERNANCE, ERNST & YOUNG FINDS

A new EY survey reveals that while 75% of companies are using generative AI, only a third have strong governance frameworks in place, prompting half of executives to increase investment in responsible AI practices. | Read More

8. TSMC NAVIGATES TARIFF PRESSURES AMID STRONG AI DEMAND

Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company (TSMC) reported that while tariffs have had some impact, global demand for AI chips remains robust. | Read More

9. PLAINTIFFS APPEAL AI SALES PLATFORM'S WIN IN IDENTITY MISUSE SUIT

Plaintiffs alleging that AI sales platform 6Sense misused their identities to promote its services are appealing a dismissal. | Read More

10. CALIFORNIA SENATE ADVANCES AI REGULATION BILLS DESPITE FEDERAL PUSHBACK

Two California AI regulation bills, SB 243 and SB 420, have passed the state Senate, aiming to address mental health risks and increase transparency in automated decision-making systems. | Read More

2 Min Read

---

Authors

Kyle L. Dockendorf

Jonathan Hung

Hassan Smith

---

Related Topics

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

Related Capabilities

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

Related Professionals

---

Kyle L. Dockendorf

Jonathan Hung

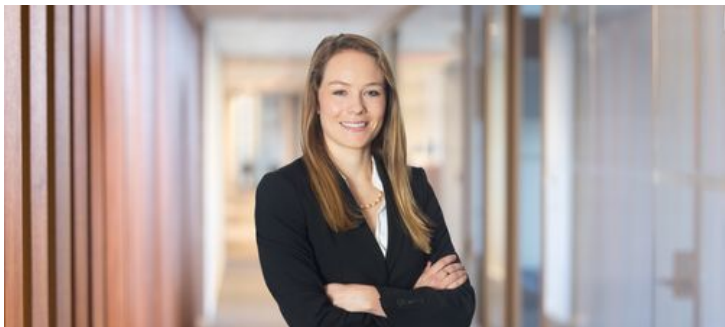

Hassan Smith

Bobby Malhotra

John Rosenthal

Mary Katherine Kulback

Alessandra Swanson

Sara Susnjar

Kathi Vidal