

Larry Sher Featured on Govcon Giants Podcast

JULY 9, 2025

Winston & Strawn Government Contracts partner Larry Sher was featured on an episode of Govcon Giants, a podcast highlighting conversations with professionals including contractors, government procurement officers, financial experts, and more to break down the secrets of successful government contracting, from landing your first contract to scaling a multi-million-dollar business. Larry spoke with host Eric Coffie to discuss several hot topics affecting federal contractors and grant recipients.

Larry provided insights on the relationship and distinctions between prime contractors, subcontractors, and the federal government and considerations of privity; challenging recent federal grant terminations as unlawful; suing the government for disputes under the Contract Disputes Act; the civil False Claims Act; contract and grant terminations based on “illegal DEI”; and more.
