OCTOBER 2, 2025

Winston & Strawn lawyers have been named to Latinvex's 2025 list of the Top 100 Female Lawyers in Latin America—the most of any firm featured this year.

Latinvex's annual ranking evaluates nearly 100 international law firms, with the final list recognizing 100 standout female attorneys who work in Latin America from 58 different firms across the United States, the United Kingdom, Canada, the Cayman Islands, and the British Virgin Islands. Selections are based on the significance of recent deals and business, firm prominence in Latin America, and rankings by organizations such as Chambers and Legal 500 among others.

This year, Winston stands out as the top-ranked firm by number of attorneys recognized—a testament to the depth of our talent and the strength of our Latin America Practice.

Talbert Navia, chair of the firm's Latin America & Caribbean Practice, is quoted saying, "We are proud and honored to have our lawyers recognized on Latinvex's list of Latin America's Top 100 Female Lawyers. Their excellence, integrity, and leadership pave the way for the next generation of female lawyers at our firm and in the legal profession. Their recognition by Latinvex is a testament to their remarkable impact in their respective practices in Latin America."
