

AI in Action: Legal Strategies for Responsible Innovation and Investments

NOVEMBER 13, 2025, 4:00 PM – 6:00 PM CT

Houston, we have innovation. With 78% of organizations now using AI in at least one business function, the race is on to navigate sector-specific adoption with precision. In Space City—where manufacturing, aerospace, aviation, energy, and healthcare fuel the economy—legal and business leaders must prepare for liftoff.

Join us for a high-impact panel discussion exploring the legal strategies that will guide responsible AI integration across Houston's key industries. From mission control to the launchpad, we're convening corporate leaders, investors, and legal professionals to chart a course through governance, compliance, and risk management in AI deployment and AI's impact on market trends and investment activity in healthcare, Houston's fastest-growing industry.

Don't miss your chance to be part of Houston's next great leap forward.
