

Melissa Anne Iannuzzi

She/Her/Hers
Associate

Washington, DC
+1 202-282-5151

Melissa is an associate in Winston's Washington, D.C. office whose practice focuses on a variety of litigation matters.

Melissa rejoins the firm after her judicial clerkship for the Honorable Charles R. Wilson of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. In law school, Melissa conducted research and assisted in updating treatises focused on national security and economic sanctions and worked as a legal extern for Whirlpool Corporation's Global Compliance Department. Before law school, Melissa spent several years working in communication and fundraising for nonprofit organizations.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Melissa earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Notre Dame in 2024, where she was a managing senior editor of the Notre Dame Law Review, a brief writer and the Brief Writer Selection Chair for the Notre Dame Moot Court Board, and a teaching assistant for the Deposition Skills course. She received her B.A. in Strategic Communication with high honors from Butler University in 2015.

ADMISSIONS

- Illinois

CLERKSHIPS

- USCA - Eleventh Circuit for the Honorable Charles R. Wilson

Capabilities

Litigation/Trials