

Jeffrey Steinfeld Named to the Daily Journal's Top 40 Under 40

OCTOBER 22, 2025

Winston & Strawn partner Jeffrey Steinfeld was named among the Daily Journal's 2025 Top 40 Under 40 list. This award honors the leaders of California's legal profession by recognizing exceptional young lawyers for their achievements, significant contributions to major legal victories, and community involvement.

The publication noted Jeffrey's successful representation of Cantor Fitzgerald and numerous other defendants in a securities fraud class action alleging the full panoply of '33 and '34 Act claims and the dismissal secured for gold-medalist Caitlyn Jenner in a securities fraud class action arising from hundreds of millions of dollars of trades in $JENNER memecoins. The profile also highlighted his successful motion securing compassionate release, despite government opposition, for Paul Paradis at the heart of a high-profile DOJ and FBI public corruption investigation. The motion allowed Paradis to be released from custody and receive necessary medical care that he was not receiving from the Bureau of Prisons.
