

Michael Kimberly Presents at AALA's Annual Educational Symposium

NOVEMBER 6, 2025

Winston & Strawn's Appellate & Critical Motions Practice Co-Chair Michael Kimberly was a featured speaker at the American Agricultural Law Association (AALA)'s Annual Educational Symposium in Scottsdale, Arizona.

Widely recognized as the leading national event for professionals at the intersection of law and agriculture, the symposium brings together attorneys, academics, and industry leaders to explore emerging legal issues shaping the agricultural landscape.

During his session, Michael gave a talk titled "Constitutional & Appellate Law Update." He offered timely insights into the current status of the Supreme Court's docket and discussed recent and pending decisions with substantial implications for agricultural business interests.
