Hector Correa Gaviria is an associate in our Litigation practice and a native Spanish speaker member of the firm's Latin America Practice group. Hector works with clients from the United States, Latin America, and Europe on civil enforcement and litigation matters. Hector works with clients on complex internal investigations and advises on all aspects of U.S. anti-corruption compliance. Hector has experience in various types of domestic and international disputes, including commercial and investor-state international arbitrations before the American Arbitration Association (AAA), the International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), and International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID).

Prior to joining the firm, Hector worked as a legal extern at the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Eastern District of New York and on an international policy advising team at the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS). He obtained his J.D. from New York University School of Law where he served as Senior Executive Editor for the Journal of Internal Law and Politics (JILP). He was also a fellow at NYU Law's Program on Corporate Compliance and Enforcement (PCCE) and received the 2024 Corporate Compliance and Enforcement Convocation Prize.
