WINSTON & STRAWN LLP

Jahnathan Braquet

He/Him
Associate

Houston
+1 713-324-2662

Jahn is a Litigation Associate in the firm's Houston office, with experience in a wide variety of practice areas, including generative AI, predictive AI, computer software, consumer electronics, and downhole tools.

Prior to joining the firm, Jahn served as a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Magistrate Judge Andrew Edison. He brings extensive technology expertise, having spent nearly 20 years in Technology in fields such as FinTech, Cloud Solutions Architecture, and Artificial Intelligence.

Key Matters

Some of the experience represented below may have been handled at a previous firm.

- Represented an Artificial Intelligence research platform in novel patent litigation accusing its generative AI processing algorithms.
- Represented a multinational client in a trade secret misappropriation litigation centered on artificial intelligence software.
- Represented a banking client in a patent litigation matter accusing its online and mobile banking software.

Activities

- Member, the Honorable Nancy F. Atlas Intellectual Property American Inn of Court, 2021 - Present
- Member, Houston Intellectual Property Law Association, 2021 - Present

Credentials

EDUCATION

Jahn earned his J.D. from University of Houston Law Center in 2021, where he was a member of the Intellectual Property Students Organization, Nancy F. Atlas IP Inn of Court, and Houston Intellectual Property Law Association where he received the joint Atlas IP Inn of Court/HIPLA scholarship. Jahn received his B.S. in Computer Engineering from Texas A&M University in 2004.

ADMISSIONS

- Texas

CLERKSHIPS

- USDC- Southern District TX for the Honorable Magistrate Judge Andrew Edison

Capabilities

| Intellectual Property | Artificial Intelligence (AI) | FinTech, Banking & Payments |

| Technology, Media & Telecommunications |