

Aaliyah Milson

Associate

New York
+1 212-294-4710

Aaliyah Milson focuses her practice on investment funds and related corporate governance matters. She advises sponsors and institutional investors on fund formation and structuring, fundraising, and ongoing operational matters.

Aaliyah also brings a detail-oriented approach in regulatory analysis and high-volume legal services. These experiences sharpen her judgment on risk, process, and client communications, providing a strong foundation for advising clients on complex transactions.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Aaliyah earned her J.D., summa cum laude, from Rutgers Law School in 2023. During law school, she served as Executive Editor of the Rutgers University Law Review and as a Teaching Fellow in the Minority Student Program. She received her B.A. in Political Science, summa cum laude, from Rutgers University's Honors College in 2019, where she was the Vice President of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated.

ADMISSIONS

- New York

Capabilities

Private Investment Funds

Transactions