Jessie Fann Wu

Associate

Los Angeles
+1 213-615-1318

Jessie is a litigation associate in the firm's Los Angeles office. Jessie focuses her practice on Intellectual Property. With a degree in computer science, Jessie is able to bring her unique perspective to intellectual property matters.

Jessie's technical background allows her to understand the complexities of software, algorithms, and emerging technologies, enabling her to communicate effectively with inventors and engineers. By bridging the gap between technical innovation and legal strategy, Jessie ensures clients receive tailored, forward-thinking IP protection. Prior to joining the firm, Jessie had experience in conducting research for topics including mass incarceration, police brutality, and the money bail system.
