

Matthew Huppert Joins Winston & Strawn in Washington, D.C.

MARCH 6, 2026

Winston & Strawn recently announced that Matthew Huppert has joined the firm's Washington, D.C. office as a partner in the Litigation Department and a member of the Antitrust & Competition Practice. Matt, who comes to the firm from the U.S. Department of Justice's Antitrust Division, is a first-chair trial lawyer who brings extensive litigation experience, a deep knowledge of antitrust, and a fresh enforcement perspective, further strengthening the firm's market leadership in litigation, antitrust, and government investigations.

"It's an honor to join a team so widely respected for its trial excellence, antitrust prowess, and collaborative culture," Matt said. "I'm excited to support Winston's continued growth in Washington, D.C. and work with my talented colleagues across practices to help clients navigate complex competition, regulatory, and litigation challenges."

"Matt's deep enforcement insight and litigation experience add a valuable dimension to the firm's client counseling and business development aptitude across various industries," Litigation Department Co-Chairs Linda Coberly and Brett Johnson said in the press release announcing his arrival. "We are delighted to welcome him to the team and look forward to his immediate collaboration on active client engagements and investigations."
