Winston Named by Latin Lawyer as the Most Popular International Law Firm in Latin America 2025

APRIL 1, 2026

Winston ranked number one among the international firms in Latin America Corporate Counsel Association's (LACCA) 2025 survey, "Who Represents Latin America's Biggest Companies," and was named the "Most Popular International Law Firm." LACCA, an initiative of Latin Lawyer, brings together leading in-house counsel and general counsel from across Latin America.

In its most recent independent research, LACCA—which surveys in-house counsel at the region's largest companies—identified Winston as the most popular international law firm, ranking us at the top of the leaderboard for representing 53 of Latin America's 100 largest corporations.

Talbert Navia, chair of the firm's Latin America & Caribbean Practice, discussed this win: "We are incredibly proud to be recognized by LACCA as the most popular international firm representing many of Latin America's largest companies. This recognition reflects the trust our clients place in us, the strength of our long-standing relationships across the region, and the depth of our team's experience advising on complex, cross border matters. It is a testament to our unwavering commitment to the region and to delivering commercially focused, high quality legal advice that meets our clients' evolving needs."
