

Chambers Debt Finance 2026 Global Practice Guide – France & UK Chapters

MAY 12, 2026

This article was originally published in Chambers and Partners Global Practice Guide “Debt Finance 2026.” Any opinions in this article are not those of Winston & Strawn or its clients. The opinions in this article are the authors’ opinions only.

Winston & Strawn Paris lawyers Mounir Letayf and Adeline Roboam, and London lawyers Ian Borman and Daniela Cohen, contributed to the latest edition of the Chambers Debt Finance Global Practice Guide, authoring the France and UK chapters, respectively. The guide covers key global jurisdictions and provides the latest legal information on debt finance markets, debt finance transactions and structuring, the documentation involved, guarantees and security, intercreditor issues, enforcement, lenders’ rights in insolvency, and tax and regulatory considerations.

Read the full France chapter.

Read the full UK chapter.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

London

Paris

Related Capabilities

Debt Finance

Related Professionals

Mounir Letayf

Adeline Roboam

Ian Borman

Daniela Cohen