

Forum for Financial Institution Directors: How Do Directors Prepare for the Worst?

APRIL 8, 2016

Winston & Strawn presented “How Do Directors Prepare for the Worst?” as part of our Forum for Financial Institution Directors webinar series on April 8, 2016.

The program addressed the current trends of securities litigation against directors and what those trends mean for directors’ responsibilities. Winston attorneys explored the latest in directors and officers liability (D&O) coverage issues and steps directors should take to avoid personal liability.

Speakers included securities class actions partner John Schreiber.

As part of the Forum for Financial Institution, our final webinar, “The Directors’ Perspective,” will be held on April 29. Past webinars have included: “What Do Regulators Expect from Directors” and “2016 Proxy Season Preparations.”
