

Winston Sponsors Commercial Finance Association International Lending Conference

MAY 10, 2016

Winston & Strawn sponsored the 10th Annual CFA International Lending Conference's opening reception in London on May 10, 2016. The firm has hosted the opening reception every year since 2012. Partner Bill Brewer was in attendance.

This year's conference hosted more than 150 asset-based lending professionals seeking a better understanding of cross-border loans, workouts, and insolvencies. Topics discussed include:

- Global developments and their impact on the world economy
- An in-depth look at recent deals and their significance for International ABL
- Legal recap of secured lending from around the world
- Real-talk perspectives from borrowers using asset-based facilities

Bill Brewer is co-chair of Winston & Strawn LLP's global Corporate Lending Practice and concentrates in the areas of corporate lending and corporate finance. He has extensive experience in asset-based, cash flow, leveraged, and other finance transactions, acquisition finance, related securities offerings of both equity and debt, and health care financing.

For information on Winston's Corporate Lending Practice, click here.

1 Min Read

Related Capabilities

Transactions

Financial Services

Related Regions

Related Professionals

William Brewer