

Linda Coberly Speaks at Bauer College's Working Families Initiative Event

JULY 26, 2016

Partner Linda Coberly spoke at the University of Houston's Bauer College of Business July 26 event titled "Practices That Pay." This discussion addressed current and forthcoming best practices for workplaces that are working family friendly. Industry leaders spoke about how their companies are implementing and discussing policies to make the workplace more flexible for working families.

Ms. Coberly, along with panelists from Shell Oil Company, Texas Children's Hospital, KPMG and Bauer College, addressed issues related to benefits, leave and flexibility in organizations, shared their own experiences, and talked about initiatives they are championing to create a friendly environment for working families.

The event was the first of its kind for Bauer College's Working Families Initiative and underscored Dean Latha Ramchand's mission to provide applicable programming to the business community that supports and empowers working families to succeed in the workplace.
