

Lynn Tanner

Of Counsel

New York
+1 212-294-6761

Lynn advises a wide range of lenders, including banks and alternative lenders, on broadly-syndicated and club financings, particularly those involving multiple tranches of debt.

Lynn represents a wide range of lenders, including banks and alternative lenders, such as hedge funds, specialty finance companies, mezzanine funds and BDCs, in connection with both broadly-syndicated and club financings, particularly those involving multiple tranches of debt.

Her experience includes acquisition financings, dividend recapitalization facilities, working capital facilities (cash flow and asset-based), bridge loans, high-yield debt offerings, debtor-in-possession and bankruptcy “exit” facilities, as well as both in-court and out-of-court restructurings and workouts.

Lynn has significant experience with respect to intercreditor issues, and has negotiated numerous agreements among lenders in connection with unitranche financings and intercreditor and subordination agreements in connection with first lien/second lien, split collateral, mezzanine and subordinated loan financings.

She has industry experience in a variety of business sectors, including manufacturing, technology, software, healthcare, pharmaceutical, energy, sports, and retail and business services, and frequently represents lenders in international financings involving multiple jurisdictions.
