

Established Employment Rules Are Not Safe From The NLRB

JULY 24, 2014

Since July 2013, the National Labor Relations Board has functioned for the first time in over a decade with a full complement of Senate-confirmed members, as well as a general counsel. The re-energized NLRB has set an aggressive agenda under the leadership of General Counsel Richard F. Griffith, plainly seeking to broaden the reach and relevancy of the board for businesses of all sizes and types.
