

Mary Panetta

Director
Litigation Practice Operations

Washington, DC
+1 202-282-5713

As director of litigation practice operations, Mary oversees the daily operations of the firm's litigation practice and the execution of its strategic plan. She serves as a liaison between attorneys in the department and firm management, working collaboratively to achieve the growth, talent, productivity, and profitability goals of the practice.

Mary began her career as a litigator and has more than 20 years of experience supporting various aspects of litigation practice, including strategic planning, lateral recruitment, merger due diligence and integration, knowledge management, lawyer training and development, legal project management, value-based billing, and electronic discovery.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Mary received her B.A. from the California Polytechnic State University and her J.D. from the University of California, Los Angeles - School of Law.

