

Maria Kostytska Speaks at Swedish Arbitration Days

SEPTEMBER 4, 2014

Winston & Strawn Paris-based attorney Maria Kostytska spoke at the Swedish Arbitration Days conference in Stockholm on September 4, 2014. The renowned event featured prominent arbitration practitioners and experts in discussing key issues arising in relation to the use of experts in international arbitration.

Ms. Kostytska participated on the panel “Examination of Expert Witnesses,” which discussed the best approaches to expert witness examination, preparation, and expert conferencing.

Ms. Kostytska concentrates her practice in international arbitration and litigation. She has represented Eastern European, Latin American, and Middle Eastern sovereign States and private companies in investor-State arbitrations under the ICSID, UNCITRAL, and ICC rules. Ms. Kostytska acts as lead counsel in a variety of commercial arbitrations and also serves as sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

Paris

Related Capabilities

International Arbitration

Related Regions

Europe

Related Professionals

Maria Kostytska