

Winston Included in Benchmark Litigation 2017 U.S. Awards

FEBRUARY 16, 2017

Winston & Strawn was honored in Benchmark Litigation's 2017 U.S. Awards on February 16, 2017, in New York. Nominees were selected based upon research conducted between March and November 2016, which included an analysis of recent casework, as well as interviews with the nation's leading private practice lawyers and in-house counsel.

George Lombardi, co-chair of the firm's highly acclaimed 500-lawyer Litigation Department, received the Intellectual Property Attorney of the Year award.

Winston also received an award for Impact Cases (Brady vs. NFL). On behalf of the NFL Players Association, Tom Brady was represented by Partners Jeffrey Kessler and David Greenspan, Of Counsel Ben Sokoly, and Associates Jon Amoon and Angela Smedley. To learn more about the case, click here.

In addition, Jeffrey Kessler was shortlisted for Antitrust Attorney of the Year.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

New York

Related Topics

Benchmark Litigation

Related Capabilities

Intellectual Property

Sports

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

George Lombardi

Jeffrey Kessler

Dave Greenspan

Benjamin Sokoly

Jonathan Amoona

Angela A. Smedley