

Steven H. Stodghill

Partner

Dallas

+1 214-453-6410

Steve is an Eagle Scout with a Silver Palm, the highest rank in Scouting, and graduated with high honors, Phi Beta Kappa, from the University of Texas at Austin in 1983. Steve's vast experience and success in complex litigation solidify him as one of the most accomplished commercial litigators in the country. He has successfully represented numerous high-profile clients across a wide array of complex commercial litigation areas, including prominent billionaires, Fortune 100 corporations, professional athletes, high-profile celebrities, and world-renowned actors. Since 2019 Mr. Stodghill has served as Public Safety Commissioner for the State of Texas, an appointment by Governor Greg Abbott, and has a Secret Level Clearance from Homeland Security.

Steve served as the Dallas office hiring partner for five years and as head of office business development. He serves on the firm's worldwide partner compensation committee. Steve's practice emphasizes all aspects of complex litigation. Before joining Winston, he was a Founding Partner at Lynn, Stodghill, Melsheimer & Tillotson (which the Texas Monthly described in a 1998 article "Top Guns" as the "Navy Seals" of litigation), working with the firm from 1993 to 2000. Steve also served as a Legislative Assistant for Congressman Ralph M. Hall in 1985, as an associate with Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld from 1987 to 1993, and as a Partner at Fish & Richardson from 2000 to 2017.

He served as Team Counsel for the Dallas Mavericks from 2000 to 2002. In addition to being chief litigation counsel to Mark Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks for over 20 years, Steve has previously represented the interests of over 20 billionaires and other high-net-worth individuals, including Reeder Family interests, Todd Wagner, Tom Dundon, Tom Hicks, Lamar Hunt, Trammell Crow, Phil Romano, Richard Rogers, Tim Headington, Gerald Ford, John Rochon, the Wilks Brothers, and multiple members of the Al Rajhi family. He has also represented Alex Rodriguez (former 14-time MLB All-Star and 3-time MVP), Jeff Frye (Texas Rangers' shortstop), Carrie Prejean (former Miss California and first runner-up Miss USA), and her husband, Kyle Boller (quarterback Baltimore Ravens, Oakland Raiders), actor Judge Reinhold, David Yarrow (world's top photographer), Vince Young (quarterback, Tennessee Titans, Philadelphia Eagles), Michael Brockers (defensive end, St. Louis Rams, Detroit Lions), Jonathan Scott (former offensive tackle, Detroit Lions, Buffalo Bills, Pittsburgh Steelers), and the John Wayne family. Steve has also represented multiple Real Housewives of Dallas, nationally syndicated radio host Glenn Beck, Jeremy Lock (seven-time Military Photojournalist of the Year), two former Playmates of the Year, and Miss Teen Texas. He has represented numerous prominent companies, including ExxonMobil, Yahoo!, Bank One, Zurich Financial, Mary Kay Cosmetics, Alcatel, Guaranty Federal Bank, Trammell Crow, Texaco, Xerox, Sabre, Eljer Industries, Qwest, Hunt Asset Management, Callaway Golf, Dean Foods, Fossil, broadcast.com, Richmond, U.S. Risk, Generation Partners, Prophet Equity, Comerica Bank, PlainsCapital Bank, AdvoCare, Worldwide Express, Cook Children's Hospital, and Driscoll Children's Hospital in significant litigation matters.

Steve has traveled to 89 countries on all 7 continents.

TEXAS PUBLIC SAFETY COMMISSION

In September 2019, Governor Greg Abbott appointed Steve to the Texas Public Safety Commission.

The Commission oversees the Texas Department of Public Safety (TxDPS), the agency responsible for statewide planning and policy formation regarding the enforcement of criminal, traffic, and safety laws; crime prevention; and law and public safety education. With an annual budget of $1.2 billion, TxDPS employs 11,000 across 13 divisions including the Texas Rangers, Texas Highway Patrol, Driver License, Regulatory Licensing, and Intelligence and Counterterrorism. In addition, the Commission interfaces with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Central Intelligence Agency, National Security Agency, Department of Defense, and similar federal agencies, while advising the Governor in responding to state emergencies such as natural disasters, mass shootings, insurrections, invasions, and acts of terrorism.

Steve is the latest notable attorney to be appointed to the Commission. Recent members have included former Dallas County District Attorney Faith Johnson, Judge Ada Brown of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Judge Jason Pulliam of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas, and former Texas Secretaries of State John Steen and Carlos Cascos.

Steve has a Secret clearance with the Department of Homeland Security.

Recognitions

Steve was profiled in the Texas Super Lawyers 2003 magazine published by Texas Monthly in an article entitled “The Dark Knight: Holy Transactions and Litigation! Steve Stodghill comes to the rescue for all his famous clients.” As Mark Cuban, owner of the NBA’s Dallas Mavericks and Steve’s long-time client, stated in that article: “Steve’s mind is always working on your case, and I like that ... I’m not an expert in litigation, but Steve has one quality I really like: He wins.”

In 2016, BTI Litigation Outlook 2017 named his firm one of the “Most Feared Firms in Litigation,” ranking the firm in the top 15 firms nationally and rating Steve’s litigation group as either a “Standout” or “Honor Roll” for complex commercial litigation, class actions, product liability litigation, securities, and finance litigation and complex employment litigation.

- For the last 25 years, Steve has had an AV Rating by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating for ethics and ability.

Steve’s previous representation of Mark Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks has drawn numerous media accolades:

- The Dallas Observer called the motion: “The Greatest Legal Brief in the History of Jurisprudence.”
- The Fort Worth Star-Telegram said the motion: “. . . extended the Mavericks victory parade another week.”

- The American Lawyer described Steve as “. . . a longtime Cuban confidant . . .” and said Cuban is “. . . no stranger to high-powered defense lawyers.”
- The San Antonio Express-News described the motion as “. . . the ultimate legal defense.”
- The Wall Street Journal described Cuban’s argument as “The Dallas Mavericks are world champions, so go pound sand.”
- Entertainment website ology.com said: “Even Mark Cuban’s legal team is the best in the world.”
- GackSports.com said “Mark Cuban’s Legal Document RULES!”
- CBSSports.com: “Mark Cuban files classic legal brief . . . probably the greatest legal brief in the history of legal briefs.”
- A high-profile legal website labeled Cuban’s legal team as “. . . the best lawyers around.”

Steve was previously profiled in a cover story in Texas Lawyer: “When it’s a serious issue, and [Mark] Cuban figures an opponent is after his deep pockets, the billionaire entrepreneur says he asks Stodghill to take care of the problem. ‘When there is even a hint of a threat, I put Stodg on them to “Stodg them,” meaning pull out all the stops and let them know they are dealing with Steve Stodghill and they don’t have a chance,’” Cuban says.

FILM ACTING AND PRODUCING CAREER

Steve has an extensive film acting and producing career, which can be seen at IMDB.com. In 2007, Steve played the role of Luke Wilson’s lawyer in The Wendell Baker Story (co-starring Owen Wilson, Will Ferrell, Eva Mendes, and Harry Dean Stanton), a performance which Robert Wilonsky of The Dallas Observer described as “the best thing in the movie.” In 2008, Steve appeared in the film Karma Police. In 2010, Steve was featured in the documentary Dinner. In 2015, Steve was featured in the film Occupy, Texas. In 2016, Steve appeared in the documentary The Starck Club. In 2019, Steve was featured in the film Undying and the film Satanic Panic.

In 2018, Steve started a film production company named Last Rodeo Studios <https://www.lastrodeostudios.com/>. Last Rodeo Studios produced its first two feature films last year, Scare Me (a horror comedy) and Save Yourself! (a Sci Fi comedy). Out of 14,000 submissions to The Sundance Film Festival last Fall, both were accepted and had their world premieres in January. Both films were accepted to The Dallas International Film Festival, Save Yourself! was also accepted to SXSW and Rooftop Films, and Scare Me made its international bow at the Lisbon International Horror Film Feast. Both films sold for wide distribution internationally after their debut at Sundance. In 2023, Last Rodeo Productions premiered its third feature film, Somewhere Quiet, (a suspense thriller) at the Tribeca Film Festival, one of 106 accepted films out of over 12,000 submissions.

In 2021, Steve was awarded the prestigious Silver Telly Award for his co-production of BIG NIGHT (At the Museum), a film which highlighted the legacy of the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum in Nashville, Tennessee. The American Alliance of Museums awarded BIG NIGHT a 2021 Bronze MUSE Award, acknowledging “outstanding achievement” in the engagement of audiences with useful and innovative programs and services and went on to receive over four million views while raising over one million dollars for The Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum. BIG NIGHT (At the Museum) earned three additional Telly Awards in the Concert, Non-For Profit and Fundraising, and Museums and Galleries categories.

APPEARANCES IN LITERATURE

Steve recently appeared as a University of Chicago Law School student in John Grisham’s The Exchange (Doubleday 2023).

Steve has appeared in print as a character in several thrillers by Harry Hunsicker, the former executive vice president of the Mystery Writers of America: Shadow Boys (Thomas & Mercer, Dec. 2014); The Grid (Thomas & Mercer, August 2015); The Devil’s Country (Thomas & Mercer, March 2017); and Texas Sicario (2019).

Steve recently made an appearance as “Trent Stodge,” the villain of the story, in a thriller written by Brian Cuban: The Ambulance Chaser (Amazon 2021).

CULTURAL REFERENCES

The Stodg Burger is a widely known, mammoth hamburger named for Steve. It has been on the menu at The Porch since the restaurant was opened in 2007 by local restaurateur Tristan Simon. Topped with a fried egg, bacon, and foie gras butter, the Stodg Burger helped The Porch claim the title as one of the Top 10 burger joints in the country as determined by reviewers on Foursquare; has been named a top 5 burger in the State of Texas by Texas Monthly; and in 2007, was named by The Dallas Observer as “Best Excuse for a Heart Attack.”

The Stodg-a-rita at Trece Mexican Kitchen and Tequila Lounge is the most expensive margarita in the city of Dallas. It is shaken, with Herradura Seleccion Suprema tequila, fresh lime juice, organic agave nectar and a dash of Red Bull.

Steve is the featured interview in a December 2020 podcast of Last Letters in which he is described as “a Texas litigator who has represented Mark Cuban, celebrities, billionaires and multiple fortune 100 companies, Steve is truly a renaissance man who embodies the Batman ethos.” Steve is interviewed by Jeremy Lock, a Bronze Star Medal recipient, who is the sole military photographer to be recognized seven times as the best in the business (Military Photographer of the Year 2002, 2005–2006, 2008, 2010–2012).
