

Welcome to Winston and the Legal Environment

JUNE 3, 2011

Welcome to Winston and the Legal Environment, our new blog focused on legal policies and environmental issues facing industry.

As the political, corporate, and regulatory responses to recent environmental initiatives evolve, it is our goal to help our clients both understand the risks and opportunities these initiatives present and develop strategic responses that cut across multiple legal disciplines.

The purpose of the blog is to provide another avenue to help bridge the gap between law and policy and compliance and execution. Our team will strive to provide timely commentary on relevant environmental concerns.

We welcome your feedback. Please feel free to contact any of the blog editors with comments or suggestions.
