

Winston & Strawn Receives MCCA “Diversity Innovator Award”

SEPTEMBER 21, 2011

Winston & Strawn was recognized by the Minority Corporate Counsel Association (MCCA) on September 26, 2011 as a Diversity Innovator. The Diversity Innovator award is given to firms that are creating new and creative best practices to assist diverse attorneys. Winston was recognized in the category of LGBT initiatives and was selected based on the firm’s achievements toward LGBT workplace equality. The award was presented at the MCCA Pathways to Diversity Conference Innovators Reception in New York City.

Amanda Groves, chair of Winston’s diversity committee, attended the reception.
