

Clawbacks and Litigation Over Executive Compensation: Strategies to Reduce Your Risk

JUNE 21, 2012

Winston & Strawn hosted an eLunch titled “Clawbacks and Litigation Over Executive Compensation: Strategies to Reduce Your Risk” on Thursday, June 21, 2012 at 12:15 (Central).

The recent explosion in litigation against corporations, boards and officers over executive compensation decisions raises many concerns for companies and boards as they plan executive compensation. This practical eLunch briefing discussed the rising threat to executive compensation and how you can reduce the risk of becoming ensnared in this litigation. This timely presentation featured a discussion of the following hot button issues:

- Lawsuits over Failed Shareholder Say on Pay Votes
- Lawsuits over Shareholder Say on Parachute Payments
- Lawsuits over 162(m) Disclosure
- Lawsuits over Stock Plan Approval Disclosures
- Strategies for Avoiding Litigation
- Compensation Clawbacks in the News
- Adopting a Clawback Strategy

Winston & Strawn partners Bill O’Neil and Jim Smith led this interactive webinar focused on what you need to know now about the latest developments in executive compensation and corporate governance.

An eLunch briefing is a complimentary interactive seminar offered by Winston & Strawn LLP over the Internet. You’ll watch and listen to a presentation at your own computer given by Winston & Strawn attorneys.
