

Geneva Managing Partner Profiled in Global Arbitration Review

SEPTEMBER 13, 2010

Ricardo Ugarte, managing partner of Winston & Strawn's Geneva office, was profiled in Global Arbitration Review's article, "Chicago lawyer heads for Geneva." Mr. Ugarte, an arbitration and litigation lawyer, has relocated from Chicago to assume leadership of the firm's Geneva office. Mr. Ugarte stated that he is "thrilled to be returning to Geneva and taking up residence there," adding, "it's historically a centre of the international arbitration community's thought leadership and activity."

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Capabilities

International Arbitration

Litigation/Trials

Related Professionals

Ricardo Ugarte

