

Seth Farber Speaks at 29th Annual All Hands Meeting

OCTOBER 17, 2017

Partner Seth Farber spoke at the 29th Annual All Hands Meeting in Santa Clara on October 17. He presented “White Collar Liability for Global Tax Strategies,” which discussed the current global criminal tax enforcement environment, underscore the types of risks that in-house counsel should be concerned about, and addressed management and mitigation of these risks including:

- The Extraterritorialization of Tax and Other Crimes
- Tax Avoidance vs. Tax Evasion
- Lessons Learned from Defending Corporations in Civil and Criminal Tax Investigations
- Managing Tax and Reputational Risk at the GC and Board Levels
- Development of Global Policies and Procedures To Minimize Risk
- Evaluation of Corporate Compliance Programs

The All Hands Meeting, presented by the Silicon Valley Association of General Counsel, is a leading event for general counsel, chief legal officers, and senior in-house lawyers at technology companies with significant portfolios of intellectual property. Winston & Strawn has been proud to support this event for many years.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

New York

Related Capabilities

Tax

Litigation/Trials

Government Investigations, Enforcement & Compliance

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Seth Farber