

Global Antitrust and IP: What You Need to Know for 2018

NOVEMBER 10, 2017

Winston & Strawn hosted a seminar titled “Global Antitrust and IP: What You Need to Know for 2018” on November 10 in Taipei City, Taiwan. This program provided an annual update on the state of global cartel, antitrust, and intellectual property issues.

Partners Heather Kafele, Aldo Badini, and Peter Crowther cut through the noise and explained the following topics:

- Key EU developments and the impact of Brexit on Taiwanese companies
- The latest issues at the Intersection of antitrust and intellectual property laws
- Everything you need to know about the latest developments in U.S. cartel enforcement

Contact Winston & Strawn for more information about this event.

Clients and friends of the firm are invited to attend this seminar. We reserve the right to limit attendance at any firm event. Registration is required.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

London

New York

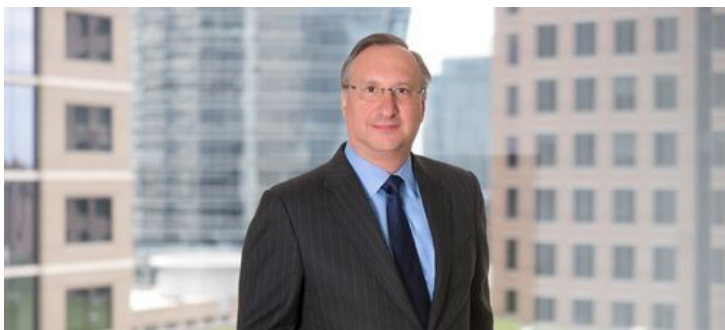

Washington, DC

Related Capabilities

Antitrust/Competition

Intellectual Property

Related Professionals

Aldo A. Badini

Peter Crowther