

Michael Elkin Named an “Intellectual Property MVP” by Law360

DECEMBER 6, 2012

Winston & Strawn litigation partner Michael Elkin earned a spot on Law360’s list of Intellectual Property MVPs for his significant courtroom wins that have had a profound effect on the new media landscape.

Mr. Elkin has successfully represented several companies in disputes whose outcomes test the boundaries of the constantly evolving new media environment, including his recent defense of Aereo Inc. and Veoh Networks Inc. against copyright infringement claims. New developments in content distribution have provided Mr. Elkin the opportunity to utilize his extensive experience representing content owners in the media industry, most recently in the television industry.

Mr. Elkin was also recently recognized as American Lawyer’s Litigator of the Week and as a Hollywood Reporter “Power Lawyer” for his work in the media industry.

Michael Elkin is an intellectual property lawyer and the managing partner of the firm’s New York office.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

New York

Related Topics

Intellectual Property Attorneys

Law360 MVP

Related Capabilities

Intellectual Property

Copyright-Infringement Litigation

Related Professionals

Michael Elkin