

Anatomy of a Corporate Investigation

NOVEMBER 23, 2017

Winston & Strawn and Duff & Phelps hosted “Anatomy of a Corporate Investigation” on November 23 at the Four Seasons Hotel (Jumeirah) in Dubai. This seminar tracked a hypothetical investigation through each of its principal stages, from the triggering event through its conclusion. With the increase in regulatory investigations and prosecutions of corporates, the seminar took a look at the key issues which can arise in such investigations and how best to approach them.

The event was designed for in-house counsel, those charged with overseeing risk within their businesses, and those with responsibility for managing investigations. Attendees gained hands-on experience with industry experts as to how best to respond following the discovery of fraud, bribery, and other regulatory issues within an organization.
