

John Rosenthal Named a Litigation Trailblazer by the NLJ

NOVEMBER 1, 2017

John Rosenthal, chair of Winston & Strawn's eDiscovery & Information Governance Practice, was named a "Litigation Trailblazer" by The National Law Journal. Now in its fourth year, the annual list recognizes leading professionals who are making a difference in litigation. The 25 nominees were highlighted in a special Litigation Trailblazers profile.

The publication recognizes John as a trailblazer for his work in building Winston's in-house full-service eDiscovery consulting practice. In the last year, the practice handled more than 800 matters, dedicating about 250,000 hours and generating over $30 million in revenue.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

Washington, DC

Related Topics

National Law Journal

eDiscovery

Related Capabilities

eDiscovery & Information Governance

Antitrust/Competition

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

John Rosenthal