

Preparing for the 2012 Proxy Season: Governance and Executive Compensation Strategies

SEPTEMBER 8, 2011

Winston & Strawn presented an eLunch titled “Preparing for the 2012 Proxy Season: Governance and Executive Compensation Strategies” on Wednesday, September 8, 2011 at 12:00 p.m. (Central).

Winston & Strawn attorney Oscar David led an interactive webinar focused on what you need to know about the latest developments in executive compensation and corporate governance.

This practical eLunch briefing was the first in a series designed to help corporate counsel navigate the changing regulatory landscape for the 2012 Proxy Season – with a specific focus on new executive compensation issues, and the latest tripwires for directors and officers of public companies and financial institutions. This timely update featured a discussion of the following hot button issues:

- Say on Pay Lessons and Strategies
- Other Dodd-Frank Provisions Soon to be Effective
- Board Reactions to Dodd Frank Governance Changes: What the General Counsel Should Know – New Best Practices
- Proxy Access
- Trends in SEC Comments
- Trends in Stockholder Proposals

Clients and friends of the firm are invited to attend seminars and events. We reserve the right to limit attendance at any firm event.

NOTE: CLE credit is not available for listening to our pre-recorded eLunch or webinar briefings.
