

Winston Hosts CRBEN Quarterly Meeting on Trade Secrets Theft and Protection

JANUARY 9, 2018

Winston & Strawn's Chicago office hosted the Chicago Regional Business Ethics Network (CRBEN) quarterly meeting on January 9, 2018. Partner Steve Grimes, co-leader of the firm's Global Privacy and Data Security Task Force, lead a presentation on trade secrets theft and protection, which explored the following questions:

- Why are trade secrets cases rapidly increasing?
- What can compliance professionals do to mitigate their trade secret risk?
- What mistakes are companies making before and after trade secret theft occurs?

Steve is a former federal prosecutor, an experienced trial lawyer, and a former chief compliance officer and senior litigation counsel for a global publicly-traded Fortune 500 company. Steve's practice focuses on compliance and data security counseling, sensitive internal investigations, and complex litigation.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Chicago

Related Capabilities

Trade Secrets, Non Competes & Restrictive Covenants

Privacy & Data Security

Compliance Programs

Antitrust/Competition

White Collar & Government Investigations

Related Professionals

Steven Grimes