

Winston Hosts Discussion of Today's Metal Industry

MAY 4, 2011

Winston & Strawn, along with Grant Thornton LLP, hosted a discussion of Today's Metal Industry: Steeling Itself for 2011 and Testing its Mettle for the Future.

With current economic conditions in a state of flux, this panel presentation discussed the general state of the metals industry, commodity pricing and forecasts, buying and inventory patterns, the foreign impact on supply and demand, and the credit markets.

Corporate partner Tim Dable moderated the panel. He was joined by Brian Deck, vice president of finance & treasurer at Ryerson Inc.; Gregory Eck, senior vice president, metals and mining industry leader of GE Capital; Lars Luedeman, director at Grant Thornton LLP; and Marc O'Neill, senior appraiser at Hilco Appraisal Services, LLC.
