

Nikolai B. Krylov

Partner

New York

+1 212-294-6617

Nikolai concentrates his practice on securities and mergers and acquisitions transactions for both public and private companies.

Nikolai has extensive experience representing foreign and domestic private and public companies and financial institutions in connection with: public offerings; mergers; asset acquisitions and dispositions; acquisition financing; cross-border transactions; exchange offers; friendly and hostile tender offers; private placements of equity and debt securities; shareholders and employment relationships; workouts and restructurings, both in and out of bankruptcy; and credit facilities. He also counsels foreign and domestic private and public companies and financial institutions and their directors and officers in connection with reporting and other securities compliance and corporate governance matters, including directors and officers responsibilities and liabilities under securities laws.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Nikolai received a J.D., summa cum laude, in 1980 and a J.S.D. in 1983, both from Moscow University. He received a J.D. from Yale Law School in 1994 where he was senior editor of the Yale Journal of International Law.

LANGUAGES

- Russian

Related Insights & News

NEWS

Winston & Strawn Represents Gazprom in €900 Million Offering of Loan Participation Notes

AUGUST 1, 2013

NEWS

Winston Represents JSC HC Metalloinvest in Pre-Export Finance Syndication Deal

APRIL 13, 2011

Capabilities

Transactions

Corporate Governance

Mergers & Acquisitions

Capital Markets

Government Investigations, Enforcement & Compliance

Private Equity

Public Companies

International Arbitration

Financial Services

Medical Devices

Technology, Media & Telecommunications