

Dan K. Webb Center for Advocacy Named in Honor of Winston & Strawn Chairman

SEPTEMBER 27, 2011

Winston & Strawn chairman Dan Webb was honored on September 27, 2011 when David N. Yellen, Dean of the Loyola University Chicago School of Law, dedicated a Center for Advocacy in his name. On February 8, 2010, Loyola announced that it had named its nationally recognized Center for Advocacy after Winston & Strawn chairman Dan Webb, who graduated from the school in 1970. Naming the center after Webb is intended to honor his distinguished career and recognize his significant contributions to the school.

In addition to the Center for Advocacy dedication, Dean Yellen honored the Circle of Advocates and introduced Loyola's LLM program and faculty.
