

Developments in Wage & Hour Laws

SEPTEMBER 28, 2011

Winston & Strawn presented an eLunch titled “Developments in Wage & Hour Laws” on Wednesday, September 28, 2011 at 12:15 p.m. (Central).

The U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) reports that the Wage and Hour Division received over 40,000 complaints in FY 2010. As the number of actions in this area continues its steady climb upward, it is more important now than ever to stay up-to-date on the latest legal developments and learn best practices to protect your interests.

Winston & Strawn partner attorney Emilie Woodhead led a practical webinar discussing hot button issues and emerging trends in wage and hour law. The interactive discussion featured:

- Updates on recent case law regarding alleged “off-the-clock” and overtime violations;
- Emerging trends, including the use of arbitration agreements and class action waivers;
- Discussion of major verdicts and settlements; and
- Specific focus on California cases, including meal/rest break issues.

Clients and friends of the firm are invited to attend seminars and events. We reserve the right to limit attendance at any firm event.

NOTE: CLE credit is not available for listening to our pre-recorded eLunch or webinar briefings.

1 Min Read

---

Related Locations

Los Angeles

Related Capabilities

Labor & Employment

Related Professionals

---

Emilie Woodhead