

Ricardo Ugarte Speaks at ICC's Annual Miami Conference

NOVEMBER 13, 2012

Ricardo Ugarte, managing partner of Winston & Strawn's Geneva office, chaired a panel at ICC's Annual Miami Conference – International Arbitration in Latin America. The theme of this year's conference was "Revisiting the Basics," marking the tenth anniversary of the International Chamber of Commerce's Miami Conference.

On November 13, 2012, Mr. Ugarte led the panel focusing on costs. Specifically, this session discussed:

- Legal fees: how much is too much?
- Applying the reasonability and cost-efficiency test
- Experts: Cost v. Necessity
- The relevance of the parties' internal costs

Mr. Ugarte focuses his practice on international arbitration, international litigation, and complex commercial litigation. He has advised a wide variety of clients, including oil and energy companies, financial institutions, telecom concerns, insurers, pharmaceutical companies, manufacturers, and foreign sovereigns in a broad range of international disputes.

1 Min Read

Event Information

The Mandarin Oriental, 500 Brickell Key Drive, Miami, FL

Related Capabilities

Litigation/Trials

International Arbitration

Related Professionals

Ricardo Ugarte