Winston & Strawn Partners Recognized in 2013 WTR 1000 Rankings

JANUARY 23, 2013

Winston & Strawn was recognized for the third year in a row by the World Trademark Review (WTR) in their "WTR 1000" rankings. The World Trademark Review is an independent publication that lists the world's leading trademark attorney firms and individuals. It is the first and only standalone ranking publication focusing on trademark issues.

Winston & Strawn's Chicago, New York, and California offices were recognized at the bronze level. WTR noted that the Chicago office has a "deep bench and a remarkable track record across the full range of assignments," attorney Ronald Rothstein. Mr. Rothstein is recognized as a seasoned litigator in trademark suits and false advertising.

Michael Elkin, managing partner of Winston & Strawn's New York office, was featured for his broad litigation portfolio, which includes protracted, cross-jurisdictional disputes involving multiple, often unusual issues.

Winston & Strawn's California offices were said to "reflect the wider firm's excellence in IP matters." The "systematic and rational" team is commended for its ability to "reach resolutions efficiently and explain esoteric IP concepts in clear, straightforward terms." San Francisco partner Jennifer Golinveaux made her third appearance on the "WTR 1000" for her strong reputation as an accomplished litigator and counselor.
