

Winston Kicks Off 1L Recruiting at Illinois and Wash U

JANUARY 11, 2018

As we gear up for law student recruiting in the new year, Winston took the opportunity to meet members of the University of Illinois College of Law Class of 2020 during a “First Look” networking reception held on January 4 at the Metropolitan Club in Chicago. Partners and Associate—all U of I alums—represented the firm at this event, where more than 80 talented and diverse 1L students were eager to learn more about Winston and the practice of law.

Our firm also was pleased to participate in an Employer Showcase for first-year law students at Washington University School of Law held on January 10. Wash U alums represented Winston at an evening Table Talk Reception to meet the bright and diverse members of the class of 2020 and introduce them to our firm. This event was part of a Wash U intercession program to foster professional development, expand skill sets and knowledge, and interact with employers.

Plans are in the works to add 5-7 1L students to the firm’s stellar incoming 2018 summer associate class. Please visit our Law Students Careers site for more information about these positions.
