

2018 Hot Topics for Health & Welfare Plans, Fringe Benefits, and Withholding Rates

FEBRUARY 1, 2018

Winston & Strawn's Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation Practice presented an eLunch titled "2018 Hot Topics for Health & Welfare Plans, Fringe Benefits, and Withholding Rates" on February 1, 2018 at 12:15 p.m. Central.

In the constantly evolving legislative and regulatory environment for health and welfare plans, fringe benefits, and employer tax withholding, it can be challenging to keep up with all of the latest requirements and enforcement activity, especially in light of the recently enacted Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (Tax Act).

Attorneys Susan Nash, Jamie Weyeneth, and Joanna Kerpen led this interactive webinar which focused on some of the critical items that should be considered in early 2018. This eLunch featured a discussion of the following hot button issues:

- Updates on Affordable Care Act (ACA) employer shared responsibility
- Tax Act changes to the ACA
- Tax Act changes to fringe benefit rules
- Tax Act changes to employer tax withholding rates, including for bonuses and other supplemental payments
