

What Would Lincoln Do?

MARCH 1, 2018

On March 1, 2018, Winston & Strawn hosted “What Would Lincoln Do?,” a one-hour presentation that traced several facets of the legal career of Abraham Lincoln, and also provided lessons applicable to today’s lawyer. The presentation addressed how to comply with and transcend some of the most important and relevant model rules of conduct, and how to get paid while doing it!

Billie Ellis, partner and award-winning lecturer and author on the history of the American law firm, postulated that one of the best role models for the contemporary lawyer was born over 200 years ago.

Contact Winston & Strawn for more information about this event.

Clients and friends of the firm are invited to attend seminars and events. We reserve the right to limit attendance at any firm event.

This lecture qualifies for one hour of ethics credit. Winston & Strawn LLP is an accredited CLE provider in California, Illinois, New York, and Texas.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Dallas

Related Capabilities

Transactions

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Billie Ellis