

SPONSORSHIP

Winston & Strawn Sponsors UNC School of Law's Annual Banking Institute

MARCH 28-29, 2012

Winston & Strawn sponsored the University of North Carolina School of Law's Center for Banking and Finance Annual Banking Institute held March 28-29, 2012, in Charlotte.

The Banking Institute is a continuing legal education program that focuses on important issues for bankers and their lawyers, designed to provide the highest quality continuing education on cutting-edge issues related to banking law. This two-day program included sessions led by a distinguished group of banking law professionals from leading banks and law firms, and included multiple panel discussions, such as:

- The New Normal of Community Banking: Key Ingredients to Survive and Thrive
- The Keys to Capital in 2012: "Capital is King"
- The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
- Dodd-Frank Act Regulatory Implementation
- Basel III and Capital Under Dodd-Frank
- The New Role of Community Banks and Thrifts
- Restructuring Commercial Loans

1 Min Read

Event Information

The Ritz Carlton, Charlotte, NC

Related Locations

Charlotte

Related Capabilities

Financial Services