Kyle is entrusted by Fortune 500 clients and financial sponsors alike as their legal advisor for the most strategic and high value M&A transactions, including substantial leveraged buyout transactions, complex carveout transactions, cross-border deals, bespoke joint ventures, strategic review processes and “sale of company” transactions for leading public companies.

Kyle’s client base underscores his versatility and expertise across various stages of corporate growth. He represents entities ranging from founder-led emerging growth companies to global giants. His work with Arthur J. Gallagher (NYSE: AJG), a highly acquisitive Fortune 500 company, includes complex carveout acquisitions and sophisticated cross-border deals. Similarly, the recent representation of SPX Flow (NYSE: FLOW) in its US$3.8B going private sale to funds affiliated with Lone Star, alongside his engagements with international clients like a top European pension fund and Dr. Oetker, a vast German multinational, further highlights his skill in orchestrating legally complex deals while coordinating with culturally diverse teams across multiple geographies. In addition, his broad experience also entails representations of sophisticated financial sponsors, including past representations of, and across from, some of the world’s premier private equity firms and leading pension funds.

Clients recognize Kyle’s substantive impact on their business ventures:
