

European Commission Releases GDPR Guidance Website

FEBRUARY 5, 2018

The European Commission recently released a website that provides thorough GDPR guidance to a wide range of stakeholders. In particular, the commission's new website presents an organized and digestible breakdown of GDPR implementation and enforcement. Readers are given access to infographics, summaries, explanations, and short guides. This website is part of the commission's knowledge campaign to ensure that all countries and types of stakeholders are ready when the law takes effect on May 25, 2018.

TIP: Among other tools, the commission's website creates a library of information, and provides readers with links to learn even more. The website makes it clear that the commission is serious about preparing all the stakeholders for compliance in the short stretch before May.
